THEREFORE, IT IS CRITICAL THAT ALL INFORMATION CONCERNING EXPERIENCE PERTINENT TO THESE FACTORS BE ADDRESSED IN THE APPLICATIONS SUBMITTED FOR CONSIDERATION FOR THIS VACANCY. APPLICANT MUST SHOW CLEARLY THE EXTENT TO WHICH HE/SHE POSSESSES THE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES DESCRIBED BELOW.

The Federal Maritime Commission (FMC) is an independent regulatory agency tasked with the regulation of oceanborne transportation in the foreign commerce of the U.S., whose mission is to (1) develop and administer policies and regulations that foster a fair, efficient, and secure maritime transportation system; (2) protect U.S. maritime commerce from unfair foreign trade practices, and market-distorting activities; (3) facilitate compliance with U.S. shipping statutes through oversight and outreach; and (4) assist in resolving disputes. More information about the Commission and its programs can be found at: <http://www.fmc.gov>.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent of this position analyzes and reviews evidence of financial responsibility for the particular passenger vessel operation to ensure compliance with the regulations that promote protection of the passenger public. He/she advises prospective applicants of the requirements of PL 89-777 and 46 CFR 540 that must be met to qualify for passenger vessel Casualty and Performance Certificates and methods of demonstrating financial responsibility (e.g., insurance, guaranty, escrow account, or surety bond) in order to qualify for these Certificates. The incumbent conducts outreach activities with passenger vessel operators, cruise line and other associated industry associations, and other pertinent government agencies; corresponds with an international network of vessel operators, protection and indemnity club members, surety companies and other members of the international passenger vessel, financial, legal, and regulatory communities on an ongoing basis; prepares required correspondence and financial reports and ensures timely handling of urgent coverage issues; and uses electronic databases and other electronic information systems to facilitate the management and monitoring of Bureau operations and activities as they relate to the passenger vessel industry.

DUTY STATION: Washington, D.C.

U.S. CITIZENSHIP REQUIRED.

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS: All applicants are required to meet the qualification requirements listed in the OPM Operating Manual for Qualification Standards for General Schedule Positions (which is available for review in any Federal Personnel Office or online at www.opm.gov). Those requirements are summarized below:

GS-9: Applicants must possess 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-7 level or a master's or equivalent graduate degree or 2 full years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to such a degree or LL.B. or J.D., if related.

GS-11: Applicants must possess 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-9 level or a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree, or 3 full years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to such a degree or LL.M., if related.

GS-12: Applicants must possess 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-11 level. There are no combinations of education and experience at this level.

Equivalent combinations of education and experience may be combined for all grade levels for which both education and experience are acceptable. Specialized experience is experience which is in or directly related to the line of work of the position to be filled and which has equipped the applicant with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to successfully perform the duties of that position, e.g., experience in research and analysis of data related to complex matters associated with regulatory issues. Applicants who lack specialized experience may substitute successfully completed education as described above.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS: Applicants who meet the qualification requirements described above will be further evaluated by determining the extent to which their education, work experience or related training, awards and performance appraisals indicate they possess or have the potential to acquire
