STATUS REPORT

Complainant, Ngobros and Company Nigeria Limited (“Complainant” or “NCNL”), through its counsel, provides the following status report regarding the above-referenced matter:

1. On November 24, 2014, the Federal Maritime Commission (“FMC” or “Commission”) received the Complaint filed against Oceane Cargo Link, LLC (“Respondent” or “OCL”) and Kingston AnsaH, individually, and on December 1, 2014, the FMC issued a Notice of Filing of Complaint and Assignment.
2. On December 1, 2014, the FMC’s Secretary sent the Complaint to Kingston AnsaH by United Parcel Service (UPS) at the residential address in the Complaint (101 Quivas Court, SW, Atlanta, GA 30331), and it was delivered and signed for upon delivery on December 2, 2014.
3. On December 1, 2014, the FMC’s Secretary sent the Complaint to OCL by United Parcel Service (UPS) to its principle place of business (4851 Georgia. Hwy. 85, Suite

- 102, Forest Park, Georgia 30297.)<sup>1</sup> On December 11th the Commission's Secretary received the undelivered service to OCL with a UPS tracking notation stating that, "The receiver has moved. We are attempting to obtain a new delivery address for this receiver. /The package will be returned to the sender."
4. On December 16, 2014, the FMC's Secretary notified counsel for Complainant that OCL could not be located at the address given in the complaint and the attempt to send notice of the complaint was returned to the FMC on December 11th. The Secretary requested another address for OCL. That same day, Counsel for Complainant provided the Secretary an address found on OCL's web-site (510 Plaza Drive, Suite 1880, Atlanta, GA 30349.)
  5. On December 18, the Secretary's Office sent the Complaint to OCL at 510 Plaza Drive, Suite 1880, Atlanta, GA 30349. That service was also undelivered and returned to the FMC on January 5, 2015.<sup>2</sup>
  6. On January 5, 2015, the Commission's Secretary mailed the Complaint again to OCL's to its principle place of business at 4851 Georgia, Hwy. 85, Forest Park, Georgia 30297 but addressed it to "Unit 102" instead of "Suite 102." On January 7, 2015 the FMC received the same UPS non-delivery notification referenced in ¶ 3 above and footnote 2 below.
  7. On January 15, 2015, the FMC's Secretary again sent the Complaint to OCL but this time it addressed the service to Oceane Cargo Link, LLC C/O Kingston Ansah, 101 Quivas Court, SW, Atlanta, GA 30331, Mr. Ansah's residential address.

<sup>2</sup> UPS tracking notation stated again, "The receiver has moved. We are attempting to obtain a new delivery address for this receiver. /The package will be returned to the sender."

8. Counsel for Complainant is waiting for the outcome of the Secretary's January 15, 2015 service to OCL.
9. Counsel for Complainant will provide a follow up status report as soon as the result of the latest service attempt is known.

Respectfully submitted,
